Associated with Mr. Schuler on the committee are, Henry Nutter, Rev. J. W. Averitt, John Grasmick and Jas. McCallum.

Girls Softball League To Play This Summer

The Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board has planned an extensive summer program of softball for boys and girls which will reach everyone who is interested in the sport.

A county-wide league for girls will be conducted and will be made up of the teams from all communities of Jefferson County. This is an open age group and should find a lot of girls participating. This league will function one night each week.

County-wide leagues of junior, intermediate, and senior boys are also scheduled. The Junior League will be made up of boys under 14 years and will function one night each week while the Intermediate and Senior leagues will play on nights each week.

The age for Intermediate leagues is 14-17 years while the Senior League players will be 18 years and older.

In order to insure the maximum participation of boys and girls of all ages the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board is co-ordinating the county-wide softball play with community ball games. This means that local recreation committees will work co-operatively with the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board in setting up as many times as possible the various community leagues as possible and organizing community leagues to play on nights when those set up for county-wide league play.

The schedule for the games will be set up and announced by the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board in next week's Jeffersonian.

J'town Civic Club Hears F. L. Robinson And Dr. Rountree

Monday night's meeting of the Jeffersontown Civic Club featured guest speakers from Louisville. Addressing the club on local municipal problems, Attorney Freeman W. Robinson told the civic group that the cost of government, like everything else, is rising.

Robinson, retained by the local phase connected with striking from the town limits a portion of the municipal area that includes a section of the Watterson Trail, explained that the procedure was an economy measure. The speaker pointed out the meager revenue now being received by the town was insufficient to meet the requirements for operating the town government and the supplying of public services.

Dr. Grady Rountree and Inspector Dolan, of the City-County Health Department, presented the club members with the technical picture of the local sewer problem. Mr. Dolan explained that an inspection of the sewer lines had been made and that the Department, which revealed that excessive infiltration overloaded the local sewer problem. Dr. Rountree said that his office was making every possible effort, through cooperation with the Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board's office last night plans were completed for a county baseball league.

The league, which is to be composed of six teams, still has one opening which is expected to be filled by a team from Louisville or Okolona. The teams and managers all ready signed up for Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Baseball League are: Frank Alliger, Buchel; Vance Walker, Middletown; Clarence Baker and Mark Metcalfe, Taylor; Frank Slack, Fairdale; and Jimmie Bowles, Jeffersontown.

The league will play the first Sunday in May and will function on the first and third Sundays of each month during the season. The second and fourth Sundays are left open in order to permit the teams to schedule games from Louisville or other counties to make baseball trips.

The Jefferson County Playground and Recreation Board has made this community baseball possible by promoting the league, supplying uniforms and equipment, supplying trophies and supervision, arranging for diamonds, and drawing contracts with the various teams.

The service will be held in Christ Lutheran Church, at 639 East morning.

SHALL CANDIDATES BUY THEIR WAY

With the springtime comes again the bandying about of the names of those whose bonnets are beginning to buzz with political bees. The number of prospective congressional candidates is increasing almost daily. Some, of course, will never get to the point of actually filing for the office.

Developments during the past week are serving to remind the voter that there are those who believe that they should have certain rights as candidates, or in the selection of candidates, because of their financial standing in the community, and particularly in their respective parties. Party leaders, too, to us, should see in this a menace to their organization, as well as a handicap at the polls.

Regardless of a man's (or woman's) qualifications to fill a public office, must he necessarily be financially independent before he is eligible to become a candidate? The people, and particularly the party leaders, should guard against tolerating any such attitude toward public office in our democratic system. Certain money powers and pressure groups are public enemies of the higher bracket type, and the public should be aware of it, before it is too late.

Rich men, like labor unions, contribute to political campaigns, for a reason best known to themselves but known, nevertheless, by others. What is worse than that is in cases where rich men, after contributing considerable sums to party organizations, presume to dictate who shall run for office and who shall not.

Extra Heat from Every Ounce of Coal as Stoker Fire Bed "BREATHES"

SEE THE NEW

Combustioneer
AUTOMATIC COAL STOKER

NOW ON DISPLAY

The delight of automatic home-heating now comes to home-owners, with coal furnaces, at a cost much below that usually expected.

This new coal-stoker, named Combustioneer, is automatic, operates entirely by thermostat, burns coal with new, long-sought-for efficiency. Combustioneer feeds so as to constantly "loosen" the fire-bed. Then air that is measured and metered by Combustioneer's Automatic "Respirator" reaches every burning particle.

It is a new-type of combustion—"perfection" of heating with coal by a pulsating, "breathing" fire-bed—a miniature "force in your furnace." Heating engineers themselves pronounce it "remarkable!" Coal is saved—furnace drudgery gone—warmth is constant. Order your Combustioneer now.

Veterans Service Bureau
EDITORS NOTE: This newspaper, through special arrangement with the Washington Bureau of Veterans Affairs, publishes a list of all Veterans Service Bureaus in this county. Questions may be addressed to the Veterans Service Bureau and they will be answered in a subsequent column. The replies can be made direct by mail to the Veterans Service Bureau which will appear in this newspaper regularly.

Vets' Hospital Facilities To Be Greatly Enlarged

Reflecting the need for increased hospitalization facilities and the pushing of the Veterans Administration hospital construction program, the fact that at the beginning of February a total of 17,000 veterans were on the hospital list awaiting entrance and the number was increasing at the rate of approximately 4,000 per month. As a matter of fact, however, less than one per cent of the veterans treatments had service-connected disabilities, although it is the policy of the administration to provide hospital facilities for all non-service-connected disabilities wherever room is available. In his effort to provide more hospital space, Gen. Omar Bradley has let the use of six army hospitals and in addition, navy has agreed to make available 8,000 beds in navy hospitals. The army has agreed to supply up to 10,000 beds if they can obtain the necessary personnel to service them. Maj. Gen. Paul R. Hawley, who recently resigned from the army to take over full command of the veterans' medical and surgical division, asserts that more than 15,000 veterans have their hearing affected and have gone through rehabilitation programs. He estimated that in the next 20 years there would be from 200,000 to 400,000 hard-hearing veterans as a result of war service.

Questions and Answers

Q. My son was in the army for 3 years, overseas 18 months. Before going, he took out an allotment for my three children, but I never received it. He also sent $30 to me out of his check, but I didn't know it had been taken. When he came home, he told me I was not to have money, but I want to know if I can still get it. I am L. E. B. Wanda, Mo.
A. The army says that the allotment was actually deducted from your son's pay he is entitled to a refund of the amount. Write to the Office of Dependency Benefits, U. S. Army, Newark 2, N. J., please attach details of your son's full name and serial number.
Q. I am a veteran of this war and was wounded November 19, 1944, and since have been unable to do much of anything. I got discharged two weeks ago and decided I had better have some money to see to about getting a G. I. loan. They told me the only loan you could get a loan on was to buy a home or a business. Now I have been home for 1 thought I could get a loan on anything your local banker would let me have the money on, so I am sick, I want to have a tractor and some land to farm, also paid for my house I already have built for. Now how can I do it? E. E. T. M. Jr., Arlington, Kan.
A. The G. I. law provides you may obtain money for both these purposes, either for farming, for your business of farming, to repair, remodel or make alterations to your home. The law also provides, however, that you must first obtain a lender who may be the loan and that the lender is the judge of whether or not he is a good risk. Would suggest you obtain from your nearest veterans' administration a list of approved lenders in your town and seek out one who will agree to make the loan.
Q. I have sugar diabetes 100 per cent. I was induced before the war and spent three months and was discharged in January after my diabetes was cured. They sent me to the veterans' facilities for application for compensation, but they turned me down. I said the fact was my induction papers. I appeared to Washington and was turned down there. Please tell me how I can get some help from the government.
— L. W. Popville, Miss.
A. I am afraid there is nothing you can do since your disability was evident when you were induced, unless you can present evidence it was aggravated by your short service, or that you have some other disability.
Q. I would like some information regarding the whereabouts of my brothers. One with the 68th Port. Company, APO San Francisco, 4th Bn. Bn. APO 72. Could you tell me where they are located and if they may be transferred?
— Mrs. G. E. R. Arcadia, Calif.
A. The 68th Port. Company arrived in New York last August 18 and the 4th Bn. Bn. was inactivated in France on November 4, 1945. If they have not arrived home, they may have been transferred to other units.

SMOKE RINGS

By Charlie Vetterline

Something entirely new and not too fragrant will make its appearance in the next meeting of the Fiscal Court.

The object is a corn cob pipe, hand-picked from the finest oaks to be found in the corn fields of Jefferson County.

This beautiful, non-imported pipe, is a present from "Smoke Rings" to Miles Thacker, popular Fiscal Court member.

Miles earned this unique reward when he buttoned "holer" "Ringer" at the last court meeting and said, "Smoke, old fellow, that's corn." "Smoke Rings" in the Jeffersonian, is all right.

That's a great crew of boys on that Fiscal Court. Can't help but recall those high school days with Sam Steinfeld, your county attorney.

Sam was captain of the R. O. T. C. unit which "Smoke Rings" served so nobly as private in the year rank. How come I didn't get to be sergeant that year, Sam?

Likeable Sam, always had his left hand on the ball. You should have heard him in oratory in those days. Drop a word. Think I should give Sam, Ed. P. J.

You know, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson County, your recreation program, just has to go places with this co-operative unit as the Fiscal Court and the Jefferson County Board of Education bring it up.

Your hats are off to a swell group of Okolona songsters. If you have missed hearing that trio of Evelyn Bennett, Martha Hatter, and Ruth Blake sing their songs then, brethren, you haven't lived yet.

Another musical chord goes to Joan Allen when "Ringer" would rather listen to than Kath Smith. There's lots of talent in Jefferson County.

For the next radio program from the Jefferson County Recreation and Recreation Board would like to feature Charlie Hight as master of ceremonies. Here's a lad who not only knows how it's done but he does it.

In our recreational heaven Mrs. Anne Blatterly, unselfish and enthusiastic Middletown booster, may be one of the angels. At any rate she's an angel to those Midtown youngsters.

Any one of them will tell you that she'll go all the way to see them happy at play. Ed Lowry says that she's the type of worker which keeps a small town from becoming dull.

Here's some news. Did you know that Mrs. LaNelle Priestley, general manager of the H. J. Priestley household, has quite a reputation as a coach of girl's basketball?

Just south of the Kentucky border where those Tennesseans will tell you that Mrs. H. J. has a great reputation for turning out champions.

Melbourne Heights was favored by the Gottlufs of Luck the day Leon Shields signed up to teach this year.

Here's a clean-cut young man who likes boys and they like him because he plays their games with them.

Wants know something? There are lots of Jefferson Countians who'll tell you that Iris Reiden of Cane Run has stage talent. At least her performance in the One-Act Plays with her buddies, Donnie Reinhardt, Ralph Quisenberry, Ruth Ann McKim, Katherine Mercer and Richard Bias was excellent.

You've got to hear it to Helen McBride. Did you hear her choral group perform during K. E. A. 7. Incidentally we noticed Fairdale's cute little Marlene Remmington singing with the group. Nice Goin', Marlene!

You know what happened to "Ringer" when he tried this method of recalling those high school days with Sam Steinfeld, your county attorney.

I mean Claude Thompson, your county fire chief, who is definitely on the job. That disposition of Claude's is worth a million dollars and his interest in Jefferson County is worth a million more.

Drop Smoke Rings a line and he'll blow some rings over your way in the next Jeffersonian. Gotta quit now—Flossie's got dinner ready.

S/Sgt. DEARNER HEADED TOP HOME

Batanga, Luzon, P. I.—S/Sgt. John W. Deanner, husband of Mrs. Alma Louise Deanner, of Jeffersontown, Ky., after more than 24 months of service in the armed forces has received final processing for his return to civilian life and now is awaiting transportation home.

Sergeant Deanner has been in both the European and Pacific Theaters of operation and was last stationed at Sub-Base R, on Luzon, 80 miles south of Manila and the 1477 Engineer Maintenance Company.

The Wright View Homemakers met March 13 in the home of Mrs. Pfeiffer on Gungle Ave. There were 15 members present and one visitor.

For the next project was given by leaders, Mrs. Schaufberger and Sims. This was on setting in sleeves and shoulder pads.

Reading was given by Mrs. Bratzke in the absence of Mrs. Timmons. It was on Venezuela and the thought of the month was Irish Happiness.—Mrs. C. Sims, publicity chairman.

There Is No Death

In the dazzling radiance of that first Easter Morning, over 1900 years ago, a mighty King walked forth from His grave in a rock-hewn tomb, and an angel sat upon the huge rock with which men had sealed the sepulchre. He had arisen, as He said!
For this King was the King of Life in the Universe, in Nature, and in men. He had triumphed over the world's hatred and cruelty!

Now, in the light of the centuries, His enemies are long forgotten! He lives on forever!

Yet, each spring Nature remembers His triumphant message. She makes the flowers arise from apparent death to blossom again; the naked trees to burst into bud and blossoms. The dead fields become verdant, and young are born to the beati of the field. The bird's chorus of joy is carried on sweet, soft spring breezes, and the gray clouds turn to blue.

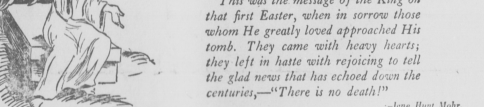

And here and there a floating, fleecy cloud. The cold, treacherous ice leaves the great rivers and streams and the snow becomes warm and gentle. The snow-capped mountains turn to softest green, while a new moon lies low in a star-studded sky.

For, spring with Easter, has come again. Life is King over death!

And in the hearts of men there is a firmer faith, and a deeper love!

This was the message of the King on that first Easter, when in sorrow those whom He greatly loved approached His tomb. They came with heavy hearts, they left in haste with rejoicing to tell the glad news that had echoed down the centuries—"There is no death!"

The hope that has been expressed of dropping his pennies in the birthday box at Cooper's Sunday School will be followed by everyone on their birthday.

For those who wish to use a special box that will not show the number of pennies dropped in the box, plans are now under way to provide such accommodations. Services will be open to the Young Matron's class of the church since the special box will probably be used only by their members.

The sermon topic will be as follows: April 12—Jesus the Seeker. April 12—Jesus the Builder. April 13—Jesus Speaks on Losses.

The Young Matron's class of the Sunday School paid their debt to the Men's class with a chicken dinner at the church last Wednesday night. About seven-ty-five attended the affair. Because many of the men for- would have a better atmosphere to live in at home if they didn't insist that the Young Matron's class members insist in an attendance contest, eat the required cabbage if defeated, they con- tented to let the young ladies help eat the delicious chicken that was served.

Musterung Out Pay
In accordance with Army Regulations, persons discharged from service prior to February 1, 1944, are no longer entitled to Musterung Out Pay.

Supervision of Veterans' Training
The Veterans Administration will institute direct supervision of veterans enrolled in schools and training-on-the-job establishments under Public Law 346, the "G. I. Bill of Rights." The supervision will be of the veteran enrollee and not of the school or training-on-the-job establishment.

Training establishments will be required to prepare, in writing, a program of training for each veteran to be enrolled. A copy of the program will be furnished both to the Veterans Administration and the veteran. There must be recorded frequently the line of jobs or tasks or activities in which the veteran engaged at the establishment. No veteran shall be considered as pursuing a course of training unless it is clear that the course of training definitely outlined will qualify the veteran for direct appointment to the position for which training is being given. The position must be available for which the veteran is being trained.

The case where the veteran is not progressing satisfactorily, will not be considered as pursuing a course if he is training for a position which cannot be attained directly as a result of completing the course.

If there is no recorded course and none will be prepared, it will be concluded that the veteran is not pursuing a course of training and may not be paid subsistence allowance. A veteran involved in such case may transfer to another training establishment.

If there is no recorded course of training, but assurance is given by the establishment that a course will be prepared promptly, the veteran is retained on a training status and will continue to draw subsistence.

In the case where the veteran is not progressing satisfactorily, an investigation will be instituted by the Veterans Administration to find where the fault lies. A warning will be issued to whomever it is at fault that training will be discontinued unless correction is undertaken immediately. A veteran whose training is discontinued under these circumstances will not be restored to a training status unless by special action by the Manager of the Veterans Administration, Regional Office having jurisdiction.

It is reported that Americans spend as much for tobacco and twice as much for alcoholic beverages as they do for education. In other words, three times as much money is spent in the United States for tobacco and alcoholic beverages as is spent for education.

CATHOLIC INFORMATION

Sponsored By REV. JOSEPH A. NEWMAN

NO MASS THIS FRIDAY
Mass is celebrated by the Catholic every day of the year except Good Friday. It is a joyous affair; true it commemorates the last Supper and the Death of Christ, but it is a mystical re-enactment for there is no blood shed, and we know well that Christ having died once for us can never die again.

But on Good Friday, the whole Christian world is disconsolate. The crucifixion of Christ is out of place, and so our Church omits the Unbloody Sacrifice and her gaze is toward that Bloody Sacrifice, the first Mass, which was completed on Calvary's slope.

It is a day of mourning. Church bells are silenced. Our sacred images are veiled in purple, with the exception of the crucifix, which alone is left uncovered, the better to rivet our attention on the central fact of our redemption. The priests in their ministrations are clad, not even in white or green, but in black. The organ is silent. Even the glimmering lamp is gone from its wonted place before the high-altar.

In her ritual for the day, the Church, grief-stricken, crosses her arms and speaks at times in the Greek which was her language in her infancy—as many a poor Greek peasant, the father, will recall the tender expression of a happy childhood. The choir leads in the name of Christ: "My people, have I done to thee? or wherein have I grieved thee?—Answer Me!"

"For thy sake I scourged Egypt with her first-born; and thou didst scourge Me and deliver Me up."

"I gave thee to drink the wine of sorrow from the rock, and thou hast given me gall and vinegar."

"I gave thee a royal scepter; and thou hast given to my head a crown of thorns."

There is no Holy Communion—no Eucharist, heart to heart with Jesus. Today the Catholic's nearest approach to that is the kiss which he reverently imprints on the image of his dying Saviour. Throughout the day, the Church prays, and over and over again, reminding the Eternal Father of the price which has been paid.

"Look down, we beseech Thee, O Lord, upon this Thy family, whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be delivered into the hands of the wicked and to undergo the torment of the Cross."

It is the saddest day of the Christian year. For exclamation of anything Catholic ask a Catholic. Write Rev. Jos. A. Newman, Director, Catholic Center, 1000 E. St. Helen's Parish, Shively, Ky.
